The last partner meeting of the DigMyVET project

The coordinator of the project, Aspire Igen Group has welcomed the rest of the partners at the headquarters of the company in Bradford, UK, where they met in person for the very last time within the DMV project.

There is still some work to do, now partners are mainly concentrating on the piloting of remaining intellectual outputs with the target groups. All is going well, however few final touches are needed for the successful end of the project.
